

Attention FDA

0438 '00 MAY -4 AM 11:15

It came to my attention that the FDA is being asked to take away my right to sign a medical waiver before purchasing a hearing aid. Instead I would be forced to have a medical exam or hearing test. Here's my views and/or experiences on several related questions?

1. Should I be forced to have a medical exam and/or hearing test before purchasing a hearing aid? If so, should the FDA pay for the exam?

If I had to go for a medical exam or hearing test I would not be wearing one ~~now~~ now. I'm glad to be able to buy them through the mail.

2. Some people are physically unable to drive to a doctor or hearing specialist, or have had bad experiences they don't want to repeat. For instance ...

3. Should the FDA take away my Constitutional Right, affirmed by the Supreme Court, to decide for myself my medical exams and treatment?

The ones that I am wearing now, is lot ~~less~~ less expensive than the ones I get from the doctor.

4. Should I be allowed to purchase hearing aids by mail as I choose?

I think it's my privilege to be able to buy as I please with out help from the F.D.A. or anyone else. Thanks to Excel.
